[redacted] emerged from the gate which is jointly used by the troops in the Pioneer Kaserne and the Infanterie Kaserne. German kitchen helpers stated that the Infanterie Kaserne quartered 90 officers, 250 EM, and 80 recruits. The troops in all three barracks installations were engaged in basic infantry drill. Only a few sections of 12 men each were seen practicing with radio and telephone equipment at the drill field. (1) Documents found in the area between the Pioneer Kaserne and the Kraftfahrer Kaserne on 17 May included:

3. On 17 May, a bakery unit of 25 men was observed in a building in Rathenow-Albertsheim, west of the Rathenow-Hohenauen highway. Next to the quarters of the bakery unit, on the connecting canal between Hohenauen Lake and the Havel River, there was an installation which quartered German female labor service personnel prior to 1945. Expatriees who had been quartered in the installation were recently evicted. Seven officers wearing artillery insignia and about 80 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets were seen there on 17 May. A German driver employed at the Kech construction office on Schuetzenstrasse stated that a Soviet motor pool was to be established in Rathenow-Albertsheim. (3)
